A number of historic events have taken place in Webster County, from the first concrete street and first elevator in the state to the killing of the last known buffalo in West Virginia. Though some of the historic places and events have vanished from sight, many still remain to be visited.

From prehistoric rock formations in Hacker Valley and the Monongahela National Forest to WPA structures at Camp Caesar and Holly River State Park, and the rebuilt Lover's Lane Boardwalk Webster County has several sites listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

FAIRS AND FESTIVALS

Webster County celebrates life and heritage through a wide variety of fairs, festivals and special events held throughout the year. From heart-pounding whitewater and wood chopping to quiet nature tours and cooking competitions, there is something for everyone.

HOME GROWN

In Webster County, the coveted farm-to-table experience happens everyday. Rich mountain soil has provided generations with the bounty of locally grown foods. Individuals can be uniquely connected to the food they consume when they visit apple orchards, or you-pick berry patches and vineyards.

Conscientious farmers also provide plenty of healthy meat options pastured right here in Webster County. You can find both protein and produce at local markets and shops. The mountains' table is set and waiting for guests... there's something for everyone!
